Evans Odhiambo Onyango

Aspiring Web Developer & Medical Student

Nairobi, Kenya
evansodhiambo501@gmail.com

Profile Summary

I am a dedicated and ambitious individual pursuing a Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery at the University of Nairobi. With a deep interest in leveraging technology to enhance healthcare and education, I am also passionate about community empowerment. I co-founded 'Girls For Change', an initiative promoting female education, and tutor Mathematics and Integrated Science at a local school. Currently exploring front-end web development, I aim to bridge the gap between medicine and technology.
